

Selkirk Middle School and High School Board Report
November 20, 2017

Students K-12 honored our local veterans during the Veterans' Day Concert. Mrs. Lithgow and the Selkirk Choir did a great job showing appreciation for our Veterans. Army Sergeant, Denise Lloyd was our guest speaker.

In their first trip to state, the Volleyball Lady Rangers bring home hardware! Way to go on 8th place. Jenna Couch and Whitney Dawson made the all-league team. Coach Zimmerman was voted coach of the year by her peers.

The high school and middle school send our Lady Rangers off to State.

Mrs. Cain's technology class gives students an opportunity to earn an industry-recognized certificate in Microsoft programs like Word, PowerPoint, Excel, and Outlook. This year Mrs. Cain has partnered with Spokane Community College to provide college credit for students earning these certificates!

The snow presented issues for our last home football game. Jay Link earned First Team All-League honors for quarter back. Ty Taylor and Hunter Carman earned Honorable Mention.

Eastern Washington University presents options to our sophomores.

The North Pend Oreille Lions Club funded a $500 project for Mr. Schott's metal fabrication students. The students welded a six foot tall "S" out of rebar and filled it with river rocks donated by Dawson Construction. On behalf of the Selkirk ASB students and Selkirk Staff, thank you to the North Pend Oreille Lions Club, Dawson Construction, Mr. Schott and all of the sixth period Metal Fabrication students for the artwork representing Ranger Pride!

Mrs. Dunbar's AP History Class performed a trial of Andrew Jackson. In the trial the class presented evidence, witnesses, and legal arguments to a 12 member jury. Andrew Jackson was found guilty on two counts and acquitted on two counts.

Selkirk Drama Club presented two one act plays and a skit on November 17th and 18th. Bad Auditions by Bad Actors and Cut were the plays and the skit was “The School Newspaper”. The cast and crew included Makayal Foy, Slade Powers, Mikayla Fristad, Sarah Chatwin, Bo Petrich, Mary Kiss, Kiara Curran, Jena Arman, Arianna Fristad, Keyria Gardner, Britney Lyons, Fallon Stoddard, Gavin Stark, Auburn Lindquist, Connor Stark, Parker Jenkins, Mailei Jungblom, Phaedra Parker, Sam Sexton, Gabby Lindquist, Bella Saunders, Brooklyn McAnerin, Jaren Martin, Silas Petrich, Hunter Marshall, and Jaden Hanson.

Ms. VanDyke is the advisor for Drama.

The Association of Washington State Principal held a board meeting in Seattle. They also paid all the expenses for attending. House Majority Leader, Pat Sullivan, addresses principals on the changes passed in July, 2017. The changes include dramatic reductions in options for student discipline including the elimination of expulsions. Long term and short term suspensions are being actively discouraged at the state level. Principals reminded Representative Sullivan that victims of school violence have rights too.
